This Worker'sPAS offers employers and employees a structured record of the skills the holder has obtained during his or her time working as a Hairdresser.

The passport will accompany the holder through the learning stages of the profession, and will document the training which the holder has received with the first employer and with any subsequent employers. It may be carried forward to new places of work, where the certification of acquired skills will be continued.

The Worker'sPAS for Hairdresser is recognised and supported by the Private Sector in Uganda.

For verification of authenticity of holder, please visit data base at:
