

This Worker's PAS offer employers and employees a structured record of the skills the holder has obtained during his or her time working as a Tailor.

The booklet will accompany the holder through the learning stages of the profession, and will document the training which the holder has received with the first employer and with any subsequent employers. It may be carried forward to new places of work, where the certification of acquired skills will be continued.

The Worker's PAS for Tailor is recognised and supported by the private sector in Uganda
